CARL PERKINS

Tiptonville, Tennessee's Carl Lee Perkins walked off the farm and into Sun Studios in 1955 to record what would become perhaps the most iconic song in rock - "Blue Suede Shoes." With its driving beat and shout of "go cat go!", this ode to youthful swagger is the very definition of cool. These blue suede shoes belonged to Carl himself.

RUSH

For over 40 years, Canadian trio Rush has been at the forefront of progressive rock and have influenced generations of musicians with their incredible virtuosity and intellectual approach. Bassist Geddy Lee is widely regarded as one of the best players to ever pick up the instrument. This Rickenbacker 4001 bass is from his arsenal.

RUSH

In addition to being a virtuoso bassist and the band's lead singer, Geddy Lee of Rush is the primary keyboardist of the group. Watching him perform is like seeing one man do the work of three. It's incredibly impressive. Geddy used this Oberheim OBX synthesizer on stage.
